LOCATION

The property occupies a highly prominent frontage to the main A41 Holyhead Road, lying between its junctions with Milestone Lane and St James Road. Within the vicinity there is a vibrant mix of uses, including retail, commercial, residential and educational. The A41 is the main arterial route linking Birmingham city centre with West Bromwich and provides excellent access to the Midlands motorway network via junction 1 of the M5.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises a prominent detached two storey former Police Station believed to have been built in the 1930's of brick construction, surmounted by a pitched tiled roof together with a pair of former semi-detached houses which in recent years were used as additional office accommodation and are interconnected at first floor level. To the rear there is a surfaced car park area accessed via a roller shutter between the two buildings and there are some single storey garaging and storage to the rear of the site. There is additional car parking to the front. The accommodation is configured to provide on the ground floor a range of offices, meeting and interview rooms together with kitchen, WC's, stores and with further offices, WC's and former locker room on the first floor. There is some additional basement storage and boiler room. The former residential accommodation has in more recent years been used to provide additional office space with ancillary stores, WC's and kitchen facilities.
